

Summertime Funtime!

Time for fun in the sun! Summer is a great time to take advantage of the longer days and get some more playtime with your furry, feathered, and four-legged buddies. Whether you're running on the beach, taking a road trip, or enjoying the fireworks show at the family holiday bash, it's always a good idea to keep your pet's safety and comfort in mind.

This newsletter brings you some good tips for a safe and happy summer, and we're always ready to answer your questions or concerns also, so don't hesitate to call us! We hope you and your best pet friends make some good memories this summer!

Sincerely,

Your friends at Brittmoore Animal Hospital

Too Hot to Handle

Spring and summer almost always mean warmer temperatures. It's never too early to think about the dangers of overheated pets and hot cars.

LEARN MORE

Feline Friends or Foes?

Multiple cat households can be bliss for all residents if the feline kingdom is a peaceable one. But what if your beloved cats just plain don't get along?

LEARN MORE

Lumps & Bumps

Growths can be benign, but they may also be signs of a condition like mast cell tumors. Play it safe and let us check any new lumps on your pet.

LEARN MORE

Have you checked the chip lately?

Microchipping has become much more common practice recently than in years past, as pet owners learn how much easier it is to return a chipped pet to its family than pets without a microchip. But did you know there's more to the process than a quick trip to our office and paying the fee? Your happy reunion with a lost pet also depends on keeping your contact information up-to-date!

LEARN MORE

When Summer Fun Turns Dangerous

Parties, BBQs, and other family get-togethers are a popular way to celebrate summer holidays. Some of those activities bring distractions and dangers that can result in harm to your pet. Just a few simple precautions will help keep your pet safe during summertime festivities.

LEARN MORE

Hitting the Holiday Road with Your Pets

Many people wouldn't dream of taking a family vacation without Fluffy and Fido, so if you and your pets have adventurous spirits, a pet-friendly trip might be the perfect summer activity to share! Be sure to plan ahead so the trip is safe and pleasant for all.

LEARN MORE

The Standard of Veterinary Excellence

